

This is a wagons blind spot view (area's that they cannot see) so think twice they have to plan more than you, if you cannot see their mirrors, they can not see you.

The wagon driver can not see this push bike in front of his cab, What if you were pulling alongside the wagon at traffic lights? Can you imagine how vulnerable you will be? So think how your actions can affect other road users!